MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Security Analysis Group

FROM : Michael E. Schneeberger

SUBJECT : Philip B. F. AGEE
Exposure of CIA Personnel

1. Reference is made to the attached P&L RYBAT cable from [London] (IN 058476) dated 4 October 1976 which indicated, according to a very sensitive source, that one Ron CASPER (ph) of The Washington Post recently was in contact with AGEE. During that contact CASPER asked AGEE questions regarding the Kennedy assassination with specific interest relating to the involvement of OSWALD and Cubans. CASPER also queried AGEE regarding personalities assigned to the Mexico City Station in 1963, and AGEE provided CASPER with details regarding the Station's surveillance capabilities and the functions of specific individuals of interest to CASPER.

2. Regarding the individuals of interest to CASPER, the following is a brief summary of pertinent information relating to those individuals identified by AGEE to CASPER:

3. Office of Security indices reflected no traces in the name of Ron CASPER, The Washington Post correspondent who was in contact with AGEE. However, it is believed that CASPER may be identifiable with Ronald KESSLER, who was mentioned in the Press Credibility security file (#610 955) as a Washington Post journalist who won the George Polk Memorial Aware in February 1973.

4. The foregoing is provided for your information. No further action appears necessary at this time except for dissemination of this memorandum to interested Agency officials.
